Carolyn Clark & Dianne Rissman

Carolyn began her first quilt in sixth grade (it remains unfinished), while Dianne started and finished her first quilt at 3. The sisters started handquilting and showcased quilts in local and national shows, including 3 juried into the Paducah AQS show. In 2004, they opened Forest Mills Quilt Shop on the family's Century Farm, named after the original small town on the property and featuring a millstone at the entrance. The shop offers an eclectic mix of fabric, reflecting Carolyn's love of Civil War patterns, Dianne's love of batiks, and local wildlife.
